INSURANCE COMMISSIONER HUDGENS' STATEMENT REGARDING HOUSE VOTE ON OBAMACARE REPEAL

Insurance Commissioner Ralph Hudgens has been asked for his opinion on the recent repeal vote on the healthcare bill. Here is his statement:

I congratulate the members of Congress who voted to repeal the deeply flawed health care law signed by President Obama last year. As I have stated before, I believe the law to be unconstitutional, and for that reason, last year ensured the passage of legislation providing that Georgians cannot be forced to purchase health insurance. This vote serves notice that people are no longer willing to accept big government "solutions" that stifle job creation, pile even more debt on the American taxpayer, and do nothing to address spiraling health care costs.
